

Vialattea Ski Area

(1.350m – 2.800m)

The Vialattea skiing area is in Piedmont, in the North-West of Italy, and is easy to reach by car or bus, with a one hour drive from Turin airport and a little more than two hours from Milan airport.

The Vialattea is one of the world's largest ski areas with 400km of perfectly linked ski slopes, connecting some of the most beautiful Italian ski resorts: Sestriere, Sauze d'Oulx, Sansicario, Cesana, Pragelato, Claviere and the French resort of Montgenèvre. The area hosted the XX Winter Olympics Torino 2006, for which many new lifts and ski facilities were built.

The expanse and variety of this skiing area can satisfy both the most demanding skiers (thanks to the long and difficult slopes) and beginners.

The Vialattea resorts are also known for the excellent food and wines. In fact there are more than 30 on-piste bar-restaurants set in stone and wood chalets with sun terraces offering incomparable views over the surrounding mountains.

The Vialattea in numbers:

- ✓ 400 km of ski slopes
- ✓ 163 ski runs (41 blue, 92 red and 30 black)
- ✓ 66 ski lifts
- ✓ 3 snowparks

The Vialattea Skipass includes the 5 resorts of the Italian Vialattea (Sestriere, Sauze d'Oulx, Cesana-Sansicario, Claviere-Monti della Luna and the Pragelato cable car) and the 6 day skipass also includes 1 day in Montgenèvre (French part of the Vialattea).

SESTRIERE (m 2.035)

- ✓ 1h30 from Turin by bus
- ✓ 400 km of slopes
- ✓ Après – ski
- ✓ exclusive club for nightlife
- ✓ Numerous activities on the snow
- ✓ Dinner on the slopes

Sestriere, situated at 2,035 metres above sea level and only 100 km from Turin, is the star at the centre of the Alpine Milky Way (Vialattea), always on show for world-class winter sporting events.

Continually living up to its reputation and glamour, it hosted numerous World Cup events, a World Championship and was the Olympic site for Alpine Skiing in 2006.

Sestriere constantly offers its best in all aspects: the wide variety of sporting activities offered, the capacity and efficiency of its lift system, the high quality and comfort of its accommodation, the exclusiveness of the shops, the refined restaurants and the entertainment.

After your day of skiing, clients and groups can spend their time around Sestriere, having a drink and enjoy the après ski in the bars near the centre of the resort or we can organise an excursion to Pragelato, a typical mountain resort, just 15 minutes from Sestriere.

These are only some of the many activities we can organize for your clients and let their experience be unforgettable!!!

After dinner Sestriere becomes alive with the exclusive Tabata nightclub.

Maison Mati apartments (SC)

Maison Mati Living apartments are situated in the centre of Sauze d'Oulx, in a quiet area of Piazza III Reggimento Alpini (nr 18).

Piazza III Reggimento Alpini is one of the main squares in Sauze and has various shops and bars, including a minimarket.

The apartments are located 50m from the local ski bus stop (the ski bus has a cost), 200m from Piazza Assietta, 400m from the Clotes chairlift and 1km from the Sportinia lift.

All apartments are equipped with an induction stove, oven, fridge, "Lavazza a modo mio" coffee machine and a led tv. The living areas of the apartments have an internal veranda or window, which overlook a small internal courtyard that backs on to other apartments. The majority of bedrooms have a window onto the living area. The hot water for the apartments runs off a 60 litre electric boiler, so should be used sparingly.

8 apartments are let on a weekly basis divided as follows:

1st floor: 1 x 2-roomed apartment for 6 pax

2nd floor: 2 x studio apartments for 4 pax, 1 x 2-roomed apartment for 4 pax, 2 x 2-roomed apartments for 6 pax, 1 x 3-roomed apartment for 8 pax and 1 x 3-roomed apartment for 10 pax.
